Teachers, Families, Students – Together for Success

In the Classroom

Parents are able to volunteer in classrooms , cafeteria, and office as needed. Parents are also able to come inside the classrooms and assist teachers with classroom activities.

Students are expected to take homework home to complete and students are also expected to take home notes informing their parents about schools events and updates on students' progress.

At Home

Parents will support their children's learning, such as:

- Participating in school events such as Reader's Theater, Father's Daughter, PAC meetings, Dad's Chat meetings
- Making sure that homework is completed.
- Promoting positive use of child's extracurricular time
- Staying informed about my child's education and communication with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district either received by my child or by mail and responding as appropriate

Students

During student led conferences, students will present their academic and attendance data and goals to their parents.

Do my homework every day and ask for help when needed.

Read at least 30 minutes every day outside of school time.

Give to my parents or the adults who is responsible for my welfare all notices and information received by me from my school every day.]
